

Terms of Participation in international conference

«International Commercial Arbitration: Law and Practice in Russia and abroad»

(26-27 November 2007, Perm, Russia)

(“the Conference”)

The Organizer of the Conference

1. The conference is useful for lawyers, directors and in-house lawyers from companies and enterprises; attorneys and associates; arbitrators of national and international commercial arbitration courts; businessmen involved in international commerce and all interested in international commercial arbitration.

2. To be a Participant of the Conference you ought to register on official site of the Conference <http://intl.prm.ru/conf/>, to pay the registration duty and to enter an appearance at the Conference.

3. To participate in the Conference you ought to register on official site of the Conference <http://intl.prm.ru/conf/>. Your registration on official site of the Conference means that you have got acquainted with the present Terms of Participation and hereby agree to meet all conditions.

4. On completion of your registration the Organizer of the Conference sends you the confirmation in support of your participation.

5. The Participant is to pay the registration duty upon presenting a bill by Organizer of the Conference and hereby inscribes in the list of participants.

6. In case of the Participant's impossibility to participate in the Conference for any of several reasons the consequences will depend on the time of Participant's notification of the Organizer of the Conference about the impossibility to participate.

7. If the Participant notifies the Organizer of the Conference about the impossibility to participate not later than a month before the beginning of the Conference, the Organizer of the Conference shall return to the Participants the whole registration duty paid up.

8. If the Participant notifies the Organizer of the Conference about the impossibility to participate not later than 2 weeks before the beginning of the Conference, the Organizer of the Conference shall return to the Participants the 50% registration duty paid up.

9. If the Participant notifies the Organizer of the Conference about the impossibility to participate later than 2 weeks before the beginning of the Conference, the registration duty paid up shall not be returned. In spite of this the conference materials shall be sent to the Participant in any case.

10. The Participant shall be entitled to grant his or her right to participate in the Conference to the other person without paying the registration duty one more time in case of the Participant's impossibility to participate in the Conference personally with the Organizer's of the Conference notification not later than a week before the beginning of the Conference.

11. In case of contingencies resulted in changes in the Program of the Conference (including, but not limited to, lecturers personality, subject of the lectures, schedule), the Organizer of the Conference shall notify about foresaid changes by placing this information on official site of the Conference.

You are welcome to ask any question about participating directly to the Organizer of the Conference by sending e-mail to info@intl.prm.ru